

2013 - 5 - Hovedprøve

Oppgave 1

Read the text. Click on the correct building.

Ben Dixon runs the shop next to the pizzeria. Right now, roses are very popular with his customers. Ben expects a lot of business next week. He is going to have a plant sale. Click on the correct building.

Oppgave 2

Read the text. Click on the correct building.

Most people in town love to visit Edgar's business. He serves the best meals for miles around. He recently painted the upper floor a dark red colour. Click on the correct building.

Oppgave 3

Read the text. Click on the correct item.

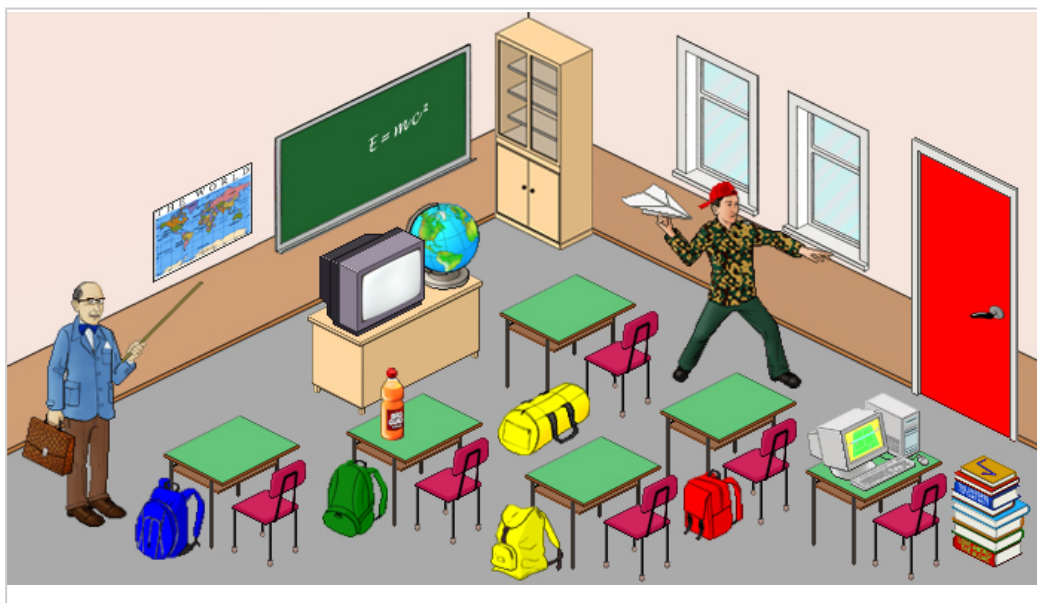

Father is going to stir his coffee with a spoon. He will use his knife and fork to eat his breakfast. Click on his spoon.

Oppgave 4

Read the text. Click on the correct item.

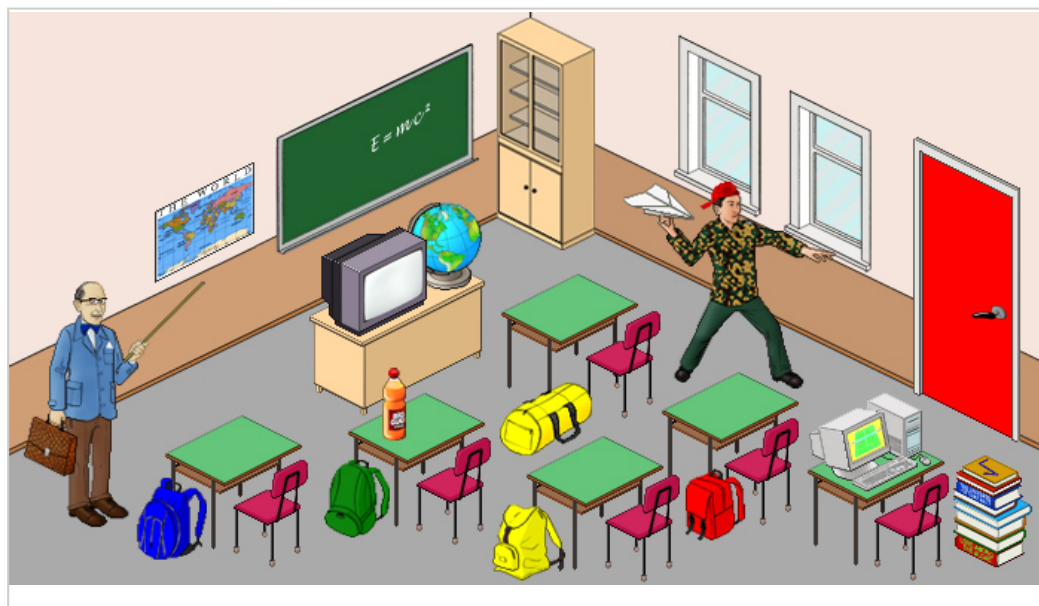

There's a big pile of books on the floor at the back of the classroom. Click on the chair next to the pile of books.

Oppgave 5

Read the text. Click on the correct item.

There is a cupboard with shelves between the window and the blackboard. Click on the shelves.

Oppgave 6

Read the text. Click on the correct picture.

Sarah's grandmother is a very happy lady and she often wears funny clothes. Today for example, she is wearing a colourful shirt with smiley faces on it.

Oppgave 7

Read the text. Click on the correct picture.

Kim's grandmother is visiting. She has black glasses and short, grey hair. She's wearing her favourite colour, yellow, today.

Oppgave 8

Read the text. Click on the correct picture.

Jen is a primary school librarian. She has red hair and has bought a poppy to wear on her dark jacket to mark Remembrance Day. Click on Jen.

Oppgave 9

Read the text. Click on the correct picture.

This animal lives in the forest, but may leave the area in search of food. They often grow to be quite big and heavy. Its dark fur is thick and warm and it has a short tail.

Oppgave 10

Read the text. Click on the correct picture.

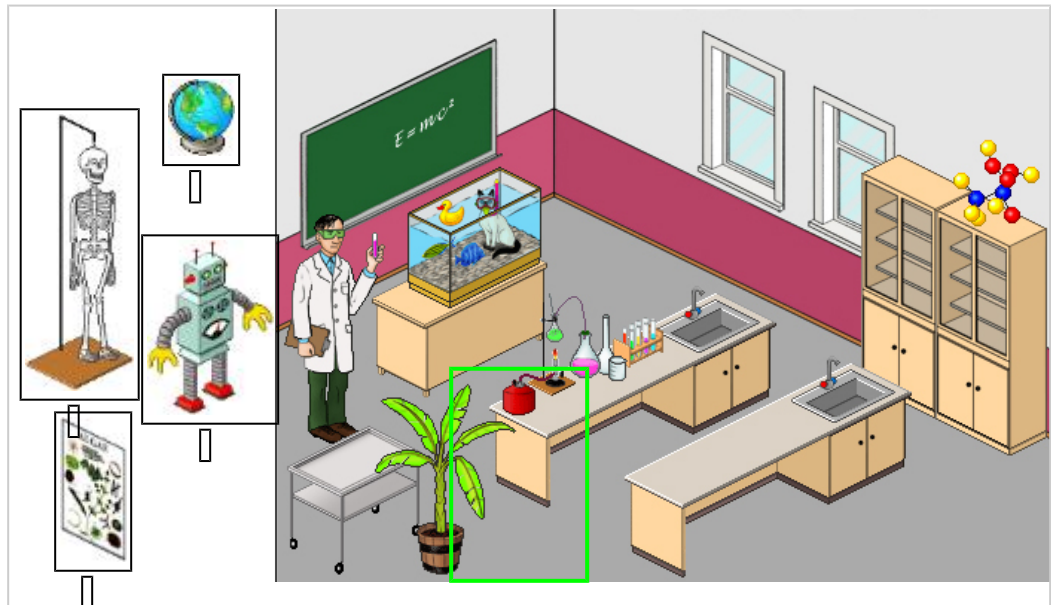

An English map maker is believed to have been the first to start selling this item, in the mid-1700s. Generally the pieces are made of cardboard now, but at first they were made of wood. It contains many small pieces that must be put together to make a complete picture.

Oppgave 11

Read the text. Click and drag.

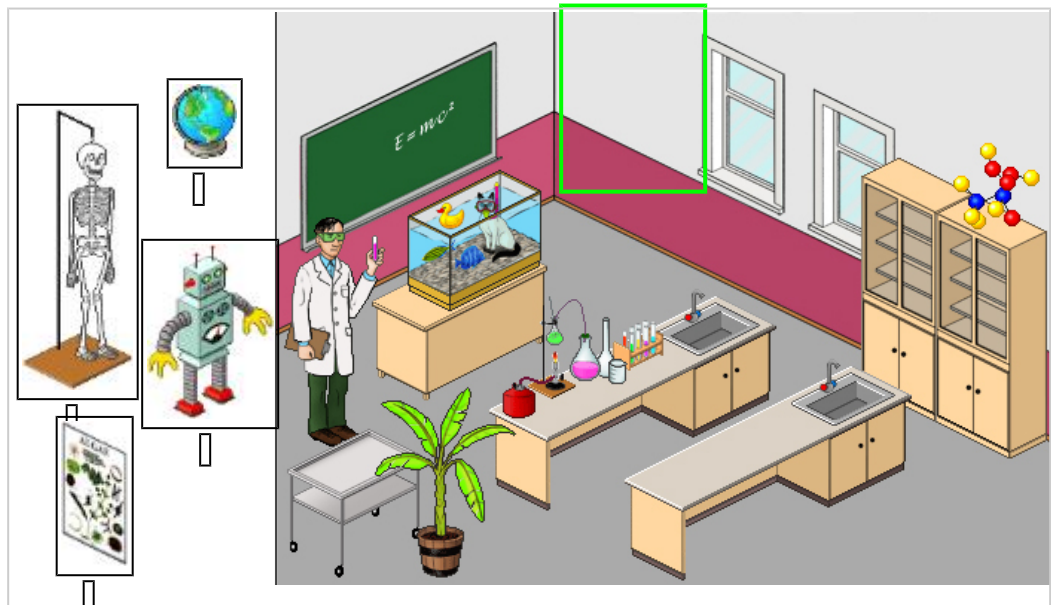

Put the robot on the floor between the plant and the chemistry set.

Oppgave 12

Read the text. Click and drag.

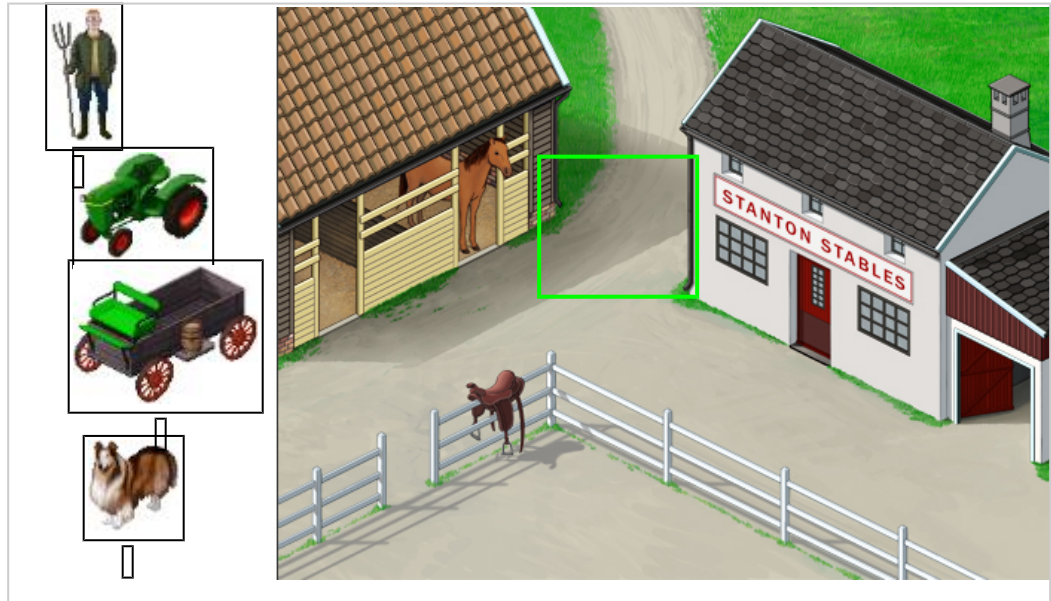

Put the poster on the wall between the window and the corner of the room.

Oppgave 13

Read the text. Click and drag.

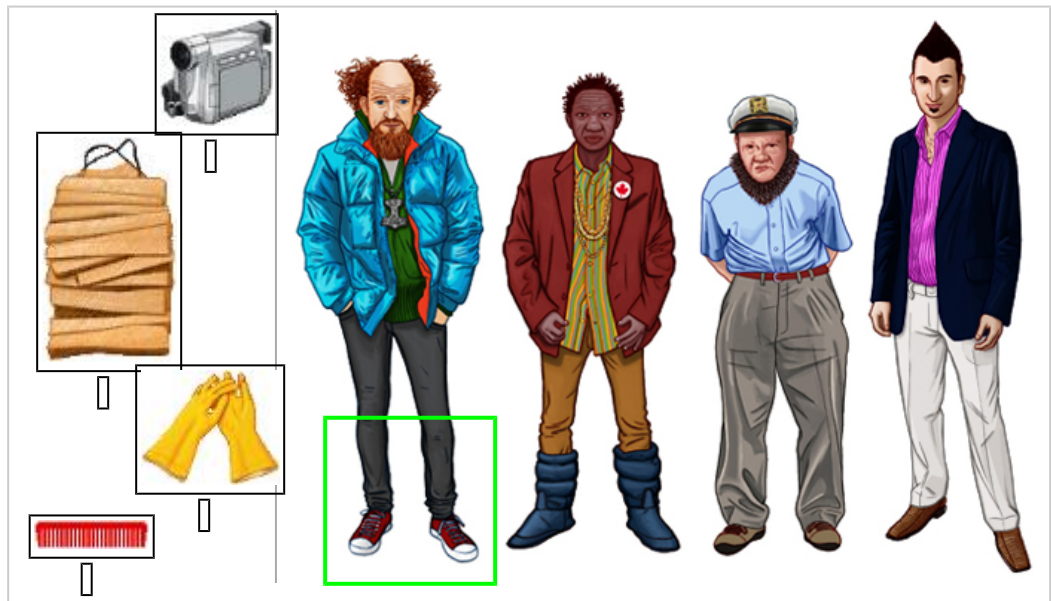

Uncle Eric has just bought a second-hand tractor. He drove it home from the shop. Unfortunately, it stopped just as he arrived home. Put the correct item on the road between the two buildings.

Oppgave 14

Read the text. Click and drag.

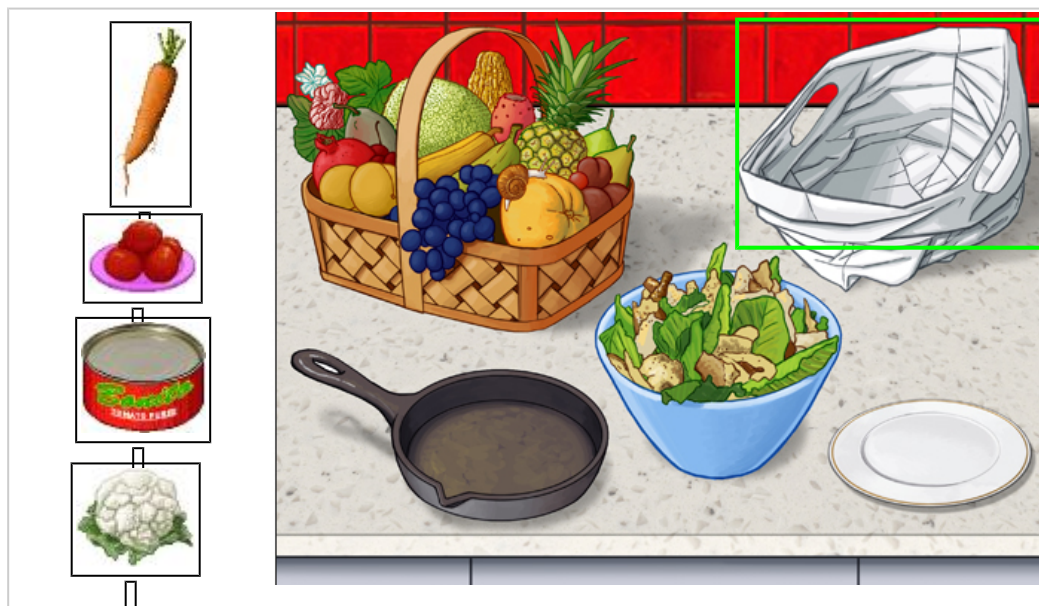

Andrew is on his way to his son's school play. He is going to film the whole thing with his new camcorder. He is wearing a thick, brightly coloured winter jacket and dark trousers. Put the correct item by Andrew's feet.

Oppgave 15

Read the text. Click and drag.

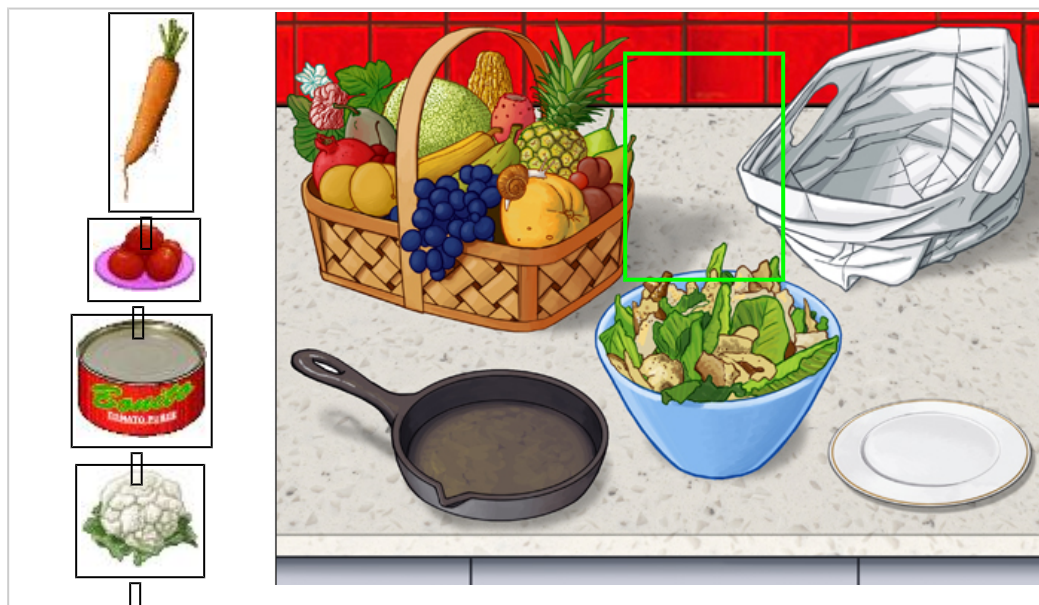

The home economics teacher is letting us make lunch today. Jimmy is responsible for the soup. He starts by taking the cauliflower out of the plastic bag and peeling off the green leaves. Put the item back where he found it.

Oppgave 16

Read the text. Click and drag.

Henry has promised to make dinner today. He starts by washing the tomatoes. Then he takes the carrot and puts it on the counter between the fruit basket and the plastic bag. Put this vegetable in the correct place.

Oppgave 17

Set the clock to the correct time.
What time is it?
It is ten to four.

Klokke

Oppgave 18

Set the clock to the correct time.
What time is it?
It is a quarter past ten.

Klokke

Oppgave 19

Set the clock to the correct time.
What time is it?
It is ten past three.

Klokke

Oppgave 20

Set the clock to the correct time.
What time is it?
It is half past two.

Klokke

Oppgave 21

Look at the picture. Click on the correct text.

This moth has unusually long hind legs. Its front and back wings are divided into several parts. The moth looks a bit like a piece of dried grass.

This butterfly is brown in colour, with a quite detailed yellow pattern on its wings. It needs a lot of sunshine and feeds on nectar from plants.

This butterfly is a powerful flier. Its wings are orange in the center and black around the edges. It lives off the juices of rotting fruits, cadavers and dung.

This is not a real butterfly but was made up by an author. Its wings are blue with a darker trim and its body is black. It played an important role in one of his books.

Oppgave 22

Look at the picture. Click on the correct text.

This moth has unusually long hind legs. Its front and back wings are divided into several parts. The moth looks a bit like a piece of dried grass.

This butterfly is brown in colour, with a quite detailed yellow pattern on its wings. It needs a lot of sunshine and feeds on nectar from plants.

This butterfly is a powerful flier. Its wings are orange in the center and black around the edges. It lives off the juices of rotting fruits, cadavers and dung.

This is not a real butterfly but was made up by an author. Its wings are blue with a darker trim and its body is black. It played an important role in one of his books.

Oppgave 23

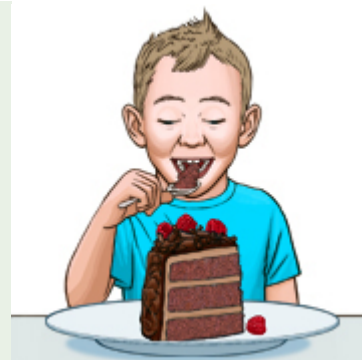

Look at the picture. Click on the correct text.

David loves to visit his grandmother. She always serves him all his favourite foods. Yesterday she had made a chocolate cake for dessert. He ate a big piece of it and it was really delicious!

David got a big surprise when he visited his uncle George last week. His uncle put a big lobster on his plate. It had really big claws that looked quite dangerous! David told him that he couldn't eat it all.

David had asked for his favourite meal for his birthday: spaghetti. His mother gave him the biggest serving of his life! The meal was really yummy and he did his best to finish it all!

David's mum put the Sunday roast in front of him and gave him a carving knife and fork. Everyone was waiting for a piece. It looked so delicious that he had to take a bite first!

Oppgave 24

Look at the picture. Click on the correct text.

David loves to visit his grandmother. She always serves him all his favourite foods. Yesterday she had made a chocolate cake for dessert. He ate a big piece of it and it was really delicious!

David got a big surprise when he visited his uncle George last week. His uncle put a big lobster on his plate. It had really big claws that looked quite dangerous! David told him that he couldn't eat it all.

David had asked for his favourite meal for his birthday: spaghetti. His mother gave him the biggest serving of his life! The meal was really yummy and he did his best to finish it all!

David's mum put the Sunday roast in front of him and gave him a carving knife and fork. Everyone was waiting for a piece. It looked so delicious that he had to take a bite first!

Oppgave 25

Read the sentence. Click on the correct text.

Click on the text that mentions a new eatable product.

APRIL FOOL!

A British supermarket chain advertised a new fruit: the pinana. As the name indicates, this was a cross between a pineapple and a banana. It was expected that the pinana would be in great demand.

APRIL FOOL!

According to a local newspaper report, a town landmark, the cathedral, was damaged and had to be pulled down. In its place, a hotel and aquarium would be built. The site had been sold to a Russian businessman.

APRIL FOOL!

A German TV station announced a new video of flying penguins. It showed the birds sliding down an ice slope before taking off. According to the report, the documentary was filmed in the Arctic.

APRIL FOOL!

A newspaper report claimed that fish could be used to produce electric energy. Salmon swim upstream at 12 meters per second. This motion could generate enough electricity to make 18 cups of tea.

Oppgave 26

Read the text. Click on the correct word.

Camilla loves snowboarding. It's November and she is waiting for the snow. She got a new snowboard for [his, her, she, he] birthday, and she is really looking forward to trying [her, him, it, them] for the first time. She has seen some tricks [on, in, for, at] TV that she wants to try out. Last year, the mountains were covered in snow by the end of November, so it should come soon. It has been quite warm this autumn, but the latest forecast predicts colder weather. Finally!

Oppgave 27

Read the text. Click on the correct word.

My best friend Janet has a beautiful little pony called Sunshine. Janet lives on a farm. I get to ride Sunshine when I visit [she, he, him, her] . Janet has two rabbits and a hamster, too. It is so much fun to [is, are, be, am] on the farm and to help her take the animals out and feed them. I live in [the, that, a, an] small flat with my parents and sister, Lea Ann. She is allergic to fur so we can't [have, has, had, having] a pet. After playing with Janet and her pets, I have to change clothes and wash my hands before going home.

Oppgave 28

Read the text. Click on the correct word.

Jake always goes with his brother to basketball practice. Jake does not play himself, but he thinks it is fun to watch his little brother racing down [this, that, these, the] court. Jake is into go-cart driving and likes speeding around the track. He just got a new helmet and gloves for his tenth birthday. Last year he won three races against [his, her, our, their] best friend.

Oppgave 29

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

Hippopotamuses are very large animals, but elephants and white rhinos are heavier. Hippos live on land but also in water. They are able to sink to the bottom of a river or lake and walk along the floor. They can stay under water for up to six minutes if they close their ears and nose.

What is true about hippos according to the text?

- Hippos are as big as elephants and rhinos.
- Hippos live only under water and not on land.
- Hippos breathe without a problem under water.
- Hippos can hold their breath for a long time.

Oppgave 30

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

It started out so well. The first snowfall was always a lot of fun. All the kids in the street came out to play in the snow. They decided to have a snowball fight. Joseph teamed up with two of his friends, and they made a big wall of snow to protect themselves from attacks. When the fight started, Joseph's team got in many good hits. Suddenly Kevin, one of the smaller boys on the other team, started to cry. A hard snowball had hit him on the shoulder. When Kevin's mother heard him crying, she came rushing out to see what had happened. She was really mad, and stopped the fight!

Who put an end to the battle?

- Joseph's friends
- Joseph's mother
- Kevin's mother
- Kevin's friends

Oppgave 31

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

Thousands of years ago, there were no towns and villages, and no farms. People just moved from place to place, looking for food. They killed wild animals and collected plants for food. Meat was cooked over fires, which kept everybody safe and warm at the same time.

When people discovered that they could tame some animals, they could stay in one place and didn't have to move around any more. So they built real houses and set up fences around the farms to keep the animals there. They had food right where they lived.

How did they find food thousands of years ago?

- They hunted animals.
- They grew the plants.
- They sold the animals.
- They bought the food.

Oppgave 32

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

The actor Daniel Jacob Radcliffe, who plays Harry Potter in the eight-film series, was born July 23, 1989. He is an only child and comes from London. Daniel showed an interest in acting when he was only five years old, but he was ten before he got his first role on screen as David Copperfield. This was a TV series based on a novel by Charles Dickens. He was eleven years old when he got the role as Harry Potter. In the films, he did a lot of the stunts himself.

How old was Daniel when he became curious about acting?

- 5
- 8
- 10
- 11

Oppgave 33

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

Harold isn't very fond of reading. Well, he wasn't very fond of reading until his mom bought him a book called the Diary of a Wimpy Kid, about a boy called Greg. It was written by Jeff Kinney, an American author and cartoonist. The book has 'logs' and drawings about Greg's life, including his struggles at school and his friend Rowley. It is full of jokes and Harold thinks it is really funny! The best thing about it is that it is the first in a series, so he has many more books about Greg to read!

What is Harold looking forward to?

- Meeting the author Jeff Kinney
- Telling his friends funny jokes
- Making some logs and drawings
- Learning more about Greg

Oppgave 34

QUESTION 1/5

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

Alice loves to bake cakes. Alice's brothers, Sam and Oliver, have hobbies that are very different from hers. They love to play video games and watch movies. But their favourite hobby is playing pranks on their sister. This drives her crazy!

One day Alice was baking a birthday cake for their father. After tasting the batter, she realized that her brothers had switched the salt and the sugar! Alice decided that she would find a great way to pay them back.

Later that evening, when the boys were busy playing video games in the basement, she went into their bedroom. She set the alarm clock to go off at 5 am. But Alice decided this was not enough.

Next she snuck into their bathroom and poured blue food colouring into their shampoo. She knew that, having woken up so early, they wouldn't notice that the shampoo was blue.

Quite a sight met Alice in the kitchen the next morning. Two tired boys with blue hair sat at the table having their breakfast. Alice and her parents couldn't stop laughing.

What is Alice's main interest?

- Waking up her brothers
- Playing video games
- Baking nice treats
- Watching movies

Oppgave 35

QUESTION 2/5

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

Alice loves to bake cakes. Alice's brothers, Sam and Oliver, have hobbies that are very different from hers. They love to play video games and watch movies. But their favourite hobby is playing pranks on their sister. This drives her crazy!

One day Alice was baking a birthday cake for their father. After tasting the batter, she realized that her brothers had switched the salt and the sugar! Alice decided that she would find a great way to pay them back.

Later that evening, when the boys were busy playing video games in the basement, she went into their bedroom. She set the alarm clock to go off at 5 am. But Alice decided this was not enough. Next she snuck into their bathroom and poured blue food colouring into their shampoo. She knew that, having woken up so early, they wouldn't notice that the shampoo was blue.

Quite a sight met Alice in the kitchen the next morning. Two tired boys with blue hair sat at the table having their breakfast. Alice and her parents couldn't stop laughing.

What did Sam and Oliver do to Alice?

- They woke her up in the middle of the night.
- They laughed at her at the breakfast table.
- They put a bright colour in her shampoo.
- They changed some of her baking ingredients.

Oppgave 36

QUESTION 3/5

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

Alice loves to bake cakes. Alice's brothers, Sam and Oliver, have hobbies that are very different from hers. They love to play video games and watch movies. But their favourite hobby is playing pranks on their sister. This drives her crazy!

One day Alice was baking a birthday cake for their father. After tasting the batter, she realized that her brothers had switched the salt and the sugar! Alice decided that she would find a great way to pay them back.

Later that evening, when the boys were busy playing video games in the basement, she went into their bedroom. She set the alarm clock to go off at 5 am. But Alice decided this was not enough. Next she snuck into their bathroom and poured blue food colouring into their shampoo. She knew that, having woken up so early, they wouldn't notice that the shampoo was blue.

Quite a sight met Alice in the kitchen the next morning. Two tired boys with blue hair sat at the table having their breakfast. Alice and her parents couldn't stop laughing.

What is true about Alice?

- She makes her brothers look funny.
- She is always driving her brothers crazy.
- She never managed to trick her brothers.
- She had always enjoyed her brothers' hobbies.

Oppgave 37

QUESTION 4/5

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

Alice loves to bake cakes. Alice's brothers, Sam and Oliver, have hobbies that are very different from hers. They love to play video games and watch movies. But their favourite hobby is playing pranks on their sister. This drives her crazy!

One day Alice was baking a birthday cake for their father. After tasting the batter, she realized that her brothers had switched the salt and the sugar! Alice decided that she would find a great way to pay them back.

Later that evening, when the boys were busy playing video games in the basement, she went into their bedroom. She set the alarm clock to go off at 5 am. But Alice decided this was not enough. Next she snuck into their bathroom and poured blue food colouring into their shampoo. She knew that, having woken up so early, they wouldn't notice that the shampoo was blue.

Quite a sight met Alice in the kitchen the next morning. Two tired boys with blue hair sat at the table having their breakfast. Alice and her parents couldn't stop laughing.

What is true about Sam and Oliver?

- Their main interest is teasing their sister.
- They took the salt and sugar Alice needed.
- They made a birthday cake for their father.
- Their shampoo was stolen by their sister.

Oppgave 38

QUESTION 5/5

Read the text. Click on the correct answer.

Alice loves to bake cakes. Alice's brothers, Sam and Oliver, have hobbies that are very different from hers. They love to play video games and watch movies. But their favourite hobby is playing pranks on their sister. This drives her crazy!

One day Alice was baking a birthday cake for their father. After tasting the batter, she realized that her brothers had switched the salt and the sugar! Alice decided that she would find a great way to pay them back.

Later that evening, when the boys were busy playing video games in the basement, she went into their bedroom. She set the alarm clock to go off at 5 am. But Alice decided this was not enough. Next she snuck into their bathroom and poured blue food colouring into their shampoo. She knew that, having woken up so early, they wouldn't notice that the shampoo was blue.

Quite a sight met Alice in the kitchen the next morning. Two tired boys with blue hair sat at the table having their breakfast. Alice and her parents couldn't stop laughing.

Why are Sam and Oliver tired?

- They had played too many video games.
- They had stayed up late watching movies.
- They had been woken up very early.
- They had washed their hair too many times.

Oppgave 39

QUESTION 1/6

Read the text. Click on the name of the person who could be speaking.

Who could say: "My dad can play two instruments at once"?

Tina plays street music together with her dad, Jack. They travel around to many cities by car during her summer holidays. Her dad plays the guitar the usual way and plays the drums with his feet, and Tina sings. People often give them money. Tina likes to spend time with her dad and visit different places.

Sam likes to do everything with his twin brother, David. They have been doing odd jobs in order to save money to go to Quebec City to visit their friend Rene. David managed to earn twice as much as his brother. He mowed their neighbour's lawn, while Sam walked all the dogs in the neighbourhood. Sam wants to fly, but David wants to take the train. They can't wait to go because they have never been to Quebec City before.

Jill and her friend are selling home-made cookies. They are going to donate the money to a children's hospital in Cambodia. The hospital needs more beds and medicine. So far only five people have stopped to buy cookies. Jill's dad said he would take some to his office to sell.

Oppgave 40

QUESTION 2/6

Read the text. Click on the name of the person who could be speaking.

Who could say: "I think airports are exciting places"?

Tina plays street music together with her dad, Jack. They travel around to many cities by car during her summer holidays. Her dad plays the guitar the usual way and plays the drums with his feet, and Tina sings. People often give them money. Tina likes to spend time with her dad and visit different places.

Sam likes to do everything with his twin brother, David. They have been doing odd jobs in order to save money to go to Quebec City to visit their friend Rene. David managed to earn twice as much as his brother. He mowed their neighbour's lawn, while Sam walked all the dogs in the neighbourhood. Sam wants to fly, but David wants to take the train. They can't wait to go because they have never been to Quebec City before.

Jill and her friend are selling home-made cookies. They are going to donate the money to a children's hospital in Cambodia. The hospital needs more beds and medicine. So far only five people have stopped to buy cookies. Jill's dad said he would take some to his office to sell.

Oppgave 41

QUESTION 3/6

Read the text. Click on the name of the person who could be speaking.

Who could say: "My daughter has a very nice voice"?

Tina plays street music together with her dad, Jack. They travel around to many cities by car during her summer holidays. Her dad plays the guitar the usual way and plays the drums with his feet, and Tina sings. People often give them money. Tina likes to spend time with her dad and visit different places.

Sam likes to do everything with his twin brother, David. They have been doing odd jobs in order to save money to go to Quebec City to visit their friend Rene. David managed to earn twice as much as his brother. He mowed their neighbour's lawn, while Sam walked all the dogs in the neighbourhood. Sam wants to fly, but David wants to take the train. They can't wait to go because they have never been to Quebec City before.

Jill and her friend are selling home-made cookies. They are going to donate the money to a children's hospital in Cambodia. The hospital needs more beds and medicine. So far only five people have stopped to buy cookies. Jill's dad said he would take some to his office to sell.

Oppgave 42

QUESTION 4/6

Read the text. Click on the name of the person who could be speaking.

Who could say: "I know the money will help many people"?

Tina plays street music together with her dad, Jack. They travel around to many cities by car during her summer holidays. Her dad plays the guitar the usual way and plays the drums with his feet, and Tina sings. People often give them money. Tina likes to spend time with her dad and visit different places.

Sam likes to do everything with his twin brother, David. They have been doing odd jobs in order to save money to go to Quebec City to visit their friend Rene. David managed to earn twice as much as his brother. He mowed their neighbour's lawn, while Sam walked all the dogs in the neighbourhood. Sam wants to fly, but David wants to take the train. They can't wait to go because they have never been to Quebec City before.

Jill and her friend are selling home-made cookies. They are going to donate the money to a children's hospital in Cambodia. The hospital needs more beds and medicine. So far only five people have stopped to buy cookies. Jill's dad said he would take some to his office to sell.

Oppgave 43

QUESTION 5/6

Read the text. Click on the name of the person who could be speaking.

Who could say: "Everyone rushes past and doesn't stop to buy anything"?

Tina plays street music together with her dad, Jack. They travel around to many cities by car during her summer holidays. Her dad plays the guitar the usual way and plays the drums with his feet, and Tina sings. People often give them money. Tina likes to spend time with her dad and visit different places.

Sam likes to do everything with his twin brother, David. They have been doing odd jobs in order to save money to go to Quebec City to visit their friend Rene. David managed to earn twice as much as his brother. He mowed their neighbour's lawn, while Sam walked all the dogs in the neighbourhood. Sam wants to fly, but David wants to take the train. They can't wait to go because they have never been to Quebec City before.

Jill and her friend are selling home-made cookies. They are going to donate the money to a children's hospital in Cambodia. The hospital needs more beds and medicine. So far only five people have stopped to buy cookies. Jill's dad said he would take some to his office to sell.

Oppgave 44

QUESTION 6/6

Read the text. Click on the name of the person who could be speaking.

Who could say: "I'm so happy I can spend the summer with my daughter"?

Tina plays street music together with her dad, Jack. They travel around to many cities by car during her summer holidays. Her dad plays the guitar the usual way and plays the drums with his feet, and Tina sings. People often give them money. Tina likes to spend time with her dad and visit different places.

Sam likes to do everything with his twin brother, David. They have been doing odd jobs in order to save money to go to Quebec City to visit their friend Rene. David managed to earn twice as much as his brother. He mowed their neighbour's lawn, while Sam walked all the dogs in the neighbourhood. Sam wants to fly, but David wants to take the train. They can't wait to go because they have never been to Quebec City before.

Jill and her friend are selling home-made cookies. They are going to donate the money to a children's hospital in Cambodia. The hospital needs more beds and medicine. So far only five people have stopped to buy cookies. Jill's dad said he would take some to his office to sell.